

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS.

CONVENTIONS OF BOTH PARTIES IN THE EAST AND WEST.

The Connecticut Democratic Instructive Delegates to Vote for Cleveland—The Republicans of Connecticut have chosen William H. White as their delegate to the National Convention at St. Louis. Mr. White is a prominent business man of Hartford. He was elected by a large majority. The Republicans of Connecticut have chosen William H. White as their delegate to the National Convention at St. Louis. Mr. White is a prominent business man of Hartford. He was elected by a large majority.

The following delegates to the St. Louis Convention were chosen by acclamation: At Large—Alfred B. Burr of Hartford, James F. Pigott of New Haven, Charles M. Allen of Putnam, and George W. Pigott of New Haven, Charles M. Allen of Putnam, and George W. Allen of New Haven.

The Committee on Resolutions, not being ready to report, the Hon. James A. Gallagher of New Haven took the platform in response to numerous calls. He said the Democratic party of to-day is the same as that of 1860, under Thomas Jefferson. The principles that Jefferson contended for intend to perpetuate to the latest generation. Our party is the party of the people, the party of the masses, the party of the oppressed.

The Hon. George M. Gunn of Milford said that the Democratic party was so united that it could defeat any opposition. He said that the Democratic party was so united that it could defeat any opposition. He said that the Democratic party was so united that it could defeat any opposition.

The Hon. James T. Pigott of New Haven was then called for. He said that he had just received a letter from a friend who was a Republican. He said that he had just received a letter from a friend who was a Republican. He said that he had just received a letter from a friend who was a Republican.

LIVE WASHINGTON TOPICS.

NO APOLOGY IN THE SENATE FROM KILPATRICK OR VORHEES.

A Reconciliation Between Senators Sherman and Eustis—Senator Sherman and Senator Eustis have been reconciled. They have agreed to work together on the Senate floor. They have agreed to work together on the Senate floor. They have agreed to work together on the Senate floor.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Senator Voorhees did not appear in the Senate chamber today. There was some expectation that there would be a sequel of some kind to the remarkable debate of yesterday, but the day passed with no reference to the subject. As soon as the gavel fell, Mrs. Ingalls and her son appeared in their usual seats in the corner of the reserved gallery on the Republican side, and their presence added strength to the rumor that an apology was forthcoming from either the Senator from Kansas or the Senator from Indiana.

Senator Sherman, however, said that he was ill. Representative Johnston of Indiana, whom Mr. Voorhees in yesterday's debate called a scoundrel and a liar, has no thought of fighting the Senator. He consulted some of his colleagues to-day as to the advisability of rising in the House to a question of privilege and demanding an apology from the Senate.

The Speaker said that he could not avail himself of a privileged question to explain what had occurred in the Senate chamber. Mr. Johnston, therefore, will allow the whole matter to drop as far as he is concerned.

An amusing incident in the Senate to-day, which was enjoyed by many Senators, was the reconciliation of Senator Sherman and Senator Eustis. The Ohio Senator was not in the Senate yesterday when Mr. Eustis paid his respects to him. In his brief but graceful and effective speech Mr. Eustis referred to the reconciliation of the two Senators.

Representatives Cummings and Cox, both of New York, stood on the curbside on Pennsylvania avenue this morning and reviewed the parade of Barham's show. As the cavalcade of Arabs came along the Congressman from the Orient exclaimed:

"Yes," said Mr. Cummings, "they are good-looking fellows, but they are not Americans. They are not Americans. They are not Americans." "They are not Americans," replied Mr. Cox, "and they are not Americans. They are not Americans. They are not Americans."

SHORTER HOURS IN ENGLAND.

Parliament Will Not Interfere With the Hours of Labor.

LONDON, May 2.—In the House of Commons to-night Sir John Lubbock moved the second reading of the bill closing shops at 8 P. M. on five days of the week and at 10 P. M. on Saturdays. If they regulated the hours for the sale of liquor, they, he asked, should they not regulate the hours for the sale of other goods? What was the use of night schools and free libraries with the present excessive hours of labor? The physical, moral and religious interests of the people were sacrificed by long hours. Mr. Bradlaugh denounced the bill as absolutely immoral in principle and absurd in detail. He said that the bill would not only dictate the hours of labor for every industry in the country, but it would also dictate the hours of rest. It would be a most terrific character, legislation that would crush personal energy and enterprise, ruin the health and weaken individual character. (Cheers.)

The bill was rejected by a vote of 373 to 95. None of the Ministers spoke on the measure.

ITALY'S PURPOSE AT MASSAWA.

Crispien Says Italy Went There in the Interests of Civilization.

ROME, May 2.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day Gen. Viale, Minister of War, replying to a question regarding Abyssinia, said the Cabinet never aimed beyond the retaking of the positions evacuated after the battle of Dogali. If the Government had intended to make a conquest in the interior it would have been gaily of culpable imprudence. Its object being attained, the Cabinet was satisfied with the result.

Prime Minister Crispien justified the conditions prescribed by him for the conclusion of a treaty with the Emperor Menelik. He said that the cause of the position is one of necessity to us. We demand and hope to obtain by future peace treaties the restoration of the Italian colonies in the interests of civilization. He occupied territories that were about to be abandoned to the Emperor Menelik. He said that the treaty was to that of the Ministry, we shall know what to do. (Cheers.)

THE EMPEROR BETTER.

He has a Good Day and Only a Night Fever.

BERLIN, May 2.—The Emperor passed a good night and feels better. His fever is slight. He passed a good day to-day. His recovery is naturally, no special cause for surprise. He is now in the hands of his doctors. He is now in the hands of his doctors. He is now in the hands of his doctors.

Archbishop Walsh and the Pope's Decree.

ROME, May 2.—Archbishop Walsh has been having frequent conversations recently with Cardinal Simoni. The latter urged the necessity of submitting to the Pope's rescript. The Archbishop declared his readiness to submit to the Pope's orders, but said that he could not act in opposition to his own conscience. He said that he would resign his position in Dublin. It is reported that if he should resign, he would be created a Cardinal.

THE VANDERBILT ROAD.

CLEVELAND, May 2.—The annual meeting of the Nickel Plate stockholders was held to-day. Only the Vanderbilt interests were present. These directors were chosen: William K.
